Date: 5/2/2014

Meridian, Idaho – The Idaho Hepatitis Advisory Council is holding its second meeting of 2014, on May 15th. The one hour meeting starts at 11:30 a.m., and will be held at Idaho State University’s Meridian Campus in Conference Room 586. Council members from around the state will join the meeting either in-person or via conference call. Council members will review existing hepatitis plans and develop additional strategies that could be added to the Idaho HIV and Viral Hepatitis Jurisdictional Comprehensive Plan. Anyone interested in learning more about the work of the Idaho Hepatitis Advisory Council can contact the Idaho Viral Hepatitis Prevention Coordinator at (208) 334-5518.
