

Certification by Reciprocity with the State of Idaho for the Microbiological Analysis of Drinking Water
Western Environmental Testing Laboratory
475 East Greg St. Suite #119
Sparks, NV 89431
EPA: NV00925

Based on the most recent assessment, proficiency testing results and compliance with the Fifth Edition of the "Manual for the Certification of Laboratories Analyzing Drinking Water" with addendums and IDAPA 16.02.13, Western Environmental Testing Laboratory is granted reciprocity with the State of Idaho for environmental monitoring under the Safe Drinking Water Act and is authorized to perform the following methods for the analytes listed.

Method	Analytes
SM9223B	Total coliform/ E. coli Enzyme Substrate (Colilert®) Present/Absent Total coliform/ E. coli Enzyme Substrate (Colilert®QT) Enumeration
SM9215E	Heterotrophic Plate Count (Simplate®)

This certificate of reciprocity is in effect through March 30, 2014.

Christopher Ball, Ph.D., HCLD (ABB)
Certification Authority for the State of Idaho

IDAHO DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH & WELFARE